GREAT BELGIAN BEER TOUR

DUTCH, BELGIAN & GERMAN BREWERIES & ULTIMATE PUB CRAWL
FEBRUARY 28 - MARCH 10, 2010

1. NEW DUTCH BREWERY VISIT – De MOELEN

Our Amsterdam to La Trappe to Mechelen coach ride now stops for a brewery tour and lunch at De Molen's Windmill brewery enroute to La Trappe & Mechelen

2. FREE MECHELEN HOTEL UPGRADE from 3 star to 4 star

We've upgraded our Mechelen lodging from the modest Hotel Carolus to the 4 Star Boutique Hotel Ve' for More comfortable rooms, a bigger buffet breakfast, and a glass of bubbly and is perfectly situated to walk to Het Anker for dinner and our brewery tour and The Mechelen Ultimate pub crawl, where all of Mechelen's top beer cafes are located around Hotel Ve'!

3. GHENT - THE NEW GRUUT BREWPUB

Annick De Splenter, a brewer's daughter searched high and low for the perfect building to house the production of her Gruut beers. De Splenter created Grutt in a historical building with a prime location in the centre of the city, complete with a stunning view of the cathedral tower and a calm nook of the river Leie. The building, once a textile mill was gutted to reflect its industrial past and fitted with a modern brewing equipment in beautiful red copper in the spotlight. At Gruut you'll enjoy a beer and the staff will describe the brewing process.

4. The GREAT BAMBERG BREWPUB CRAWL and WEYERMANN MALT BREWERY TOUR

We've researched the top Bamberg brewpubs and have created The Great Bamberg Beer Tour and Ultimate Pub Crawl. We've also been quite fortunate to secure a tour for our group at the world renowned Weyermann Malt Brewery in Bamberg.

5. MUNICH: PUB CRAWL & HOFBRAUHUUS

Prost! Tonight, in the company of a local guide, we'll dive into the heart of Munich's beer culture. Drink where locals drink and feast on Bavarian snacks as you discover an array of Munich's history and culture. We'll enjoy a private tour through the beautiful Oktoberfest Museum in one of Munich's most historic buildings (standing since 1347) as well as a traditional beer garden to soak up before concluding at the world-famous Hofbräukeller (Optional)

Each Great Belgian Beer Tour features:

- The Zythos 24 Hours of Belgian Beer Festival
- The Pre-Zythos Festival hosted by Alvinees, De Struisse and De Moelen
- Nacht de Grote Dorst (Night of The Great Thirst) Gueze & Lambic Festival
  - Between 09 and 14 Brewery visits and tastings

FEBRUARY 28 - MARCH 10, 2010

February

Sun 28

Depart NEW YORK or other USA city on Continental Airlines for your overnight flight to Amsterdam, Holland.

We begin the 2010 ALUMNI & BREWERS SPECIAL GBBT with one very full day in Amsterdam, a beer city we love to visit and as our starting point to visit a few Dutch Breweries en-route to our Belgium Breweries , Three Belgian Beer Festivals, 1 German Brewery and the Bamberg Brewpubs, ending the trip at the famous Munich Hofbrauhaus!

(We'll be happy to add one or two nights arrange for those of you who wish more time in old Amsterdam)

March

Mon 01

ARRIVE, EXPLORE and TASTE AMSTERDAM

Arrive Amsterdam's Schiphol airport this morning, then train to Amsterdam Centraal Station and taxi or trolley* to our hotels.

You have this morning and early afternoon at leisure to explore Amsterdam. Visit the Anne Frank House, The Rijksmuseum, Van Gogh Museum or the hundreds of Amsterdam's historical sights. Shopping in Amsterdam is hip too, from The Bijenkorf (Bee Hive) department store along the Dam Straat to The Flower Market, Diamond factories and art galleries A'dam has something for everyone.

Mid-afternoon we'll trolley just beyond the Centraal Station to the T'ij (Egg) Windmill Brewery for a tasting of Amsterdam's top beers.

This evening, after a brief respite in our hotels we will meet at our favorite Amsterdam pubs "Café De Wildemann" for a Welcome to Amsterdam pint of Dutch or Belgian Trappist ale.

After De Wildeman, we suggest that pods of four to six persons begin an impromptu pub crawl exploring the classic beer proflokal (beer professional) pubs of Old Amsterdam with our Great Amsterdam Beer Tour & Ultimate Pub Crawl Guide – a guide to our favorite and most interesting Amsterdam (in both ales and history) pubs.

It is strongly recommended that you get some rest tonight, as tomorrow will be rather a fun-soaked day

Each year when we create our new Great Belgian Beer Tour, we draw on what we've learned from each prior year. In the past several years, we've discovered that Ghent is the perfect place for our stay in Belgium, being equidistant to each of our favorite beer destinations: Westveleren and the top Flemish Breweries, Brussels (with Cantillon and the must see Grand Place) and Brugges ("The Venice of the North" with its charming boutique shops, chocolatiers and world class beer cafes like "t'Bruggse Beertje" -The Little Bear and the famous hidden pub "GARRE") each only 40 minutes away. Antwerp is 49 minutes and St Niklaas is 29 minutes non-stop for the 24 Hours of Beer Festival.

DeMOELEN BREWERY and LA TRAPPE TRAPPIST & HET ANKER DINNER

This morning we are up and away (not too early) to visit De Moelen – a Dutch brewery we discovered at last year's Pre-Zyθος beerfest hosted at Alvinnes. We loved the beer and arranged a tour and lunch for 2010. Then it's off to our annual Must Visit to the only Trappist Brewery La Trappe (Koingshoeven in the USA) for a tour by our pal and head brewer Ludwig and an incredible afternoon snack of Paterkaas (Abbey Cheese) and Bitterballen a delicious Dutch treat (Beef stew in a fried ball), you'll only want, say, twenty of these!

After La Trappe we carry on to the Belgian town of Mechelen, home of Het Anker, brewers of Gouden Carolus ales. We'll settle in at our fantastic Hotel Ve' enjoy a pre-dinner cocktail courtesy of the hotel, then walk a few blocks to Het Anker's brasserie for a wonderful dinner of Mechelse koekoek, (actually a local breed of chicken whose feathers resemble a cuckoo bird). This entrée with the funny name is a chicken breast cooked in a rich Gouden Carolus Triple gravy, stuffed with vegetables. Or try the Salmon or beef stew, each with the triple sauce! Even the steak comes with a Carolus Triple sauce! (Dinner optional)

Most persons would be content with the two brewery visits and tastings and enjoying beer cuisine at lunch and dinner and call it a night and you may certainly do so if tired. However it just so happens that our four star boutique hotel Ve' surrounded by 6 of the very top beer cafes in Mechelin! And so our 1st Mechelen Ultimate Pub Crawl begins!

Wed 03

HET ANKER BREWERY TOUR, WESTVLETEREN CAFE and A BELGIAN BREWERY

This morning, yes, its morning already, begins with a full breakfast at Hotel Ve' then a tour of the newly remodded Het Anker Brewery, home of Gouden Carolus ales and Gouden Carolus Beer Chocolates!

After our Het Anker tour we'll enjoy a leisurely coach ride across Flanders to stop for lunch at Westvleteren's "In de Vrede" cafe at The Abbey of St Sixtus – where you'll enjoy a no-host lunch of Grilled Ham and Abbey cheese Paninis and as many of the world's most rare and renowned Westvletern 12's as you wish. Be sure to leave room for the incredible Ice Cream sundae!

While there's no guarantee that we'll be as lucky as we have been for the past two years, (when each of us has been able to purchase a full six-pack of Westy 12). however, as we are well known to the Café and we come earlier than other beer travelers, we have always been able to purchase at least a souvenir box of a Westvleteren Glass, a 5, 8 and 12 to take home.

After Westvleteren we will visit another brewery in the area, our preliminary short list includes: St Bernardus, De Struisse (Brewers of Black Albert) or Rodenbach.

After a short drive, we arrive and check-in to our superbly located hotels in historic Ghent, one of the most beautiful historic cities in Europe. Ghent was the seat of the counts of Flanders whose great Gravensteen Castle is a "must" visit. Of even greater importance to the Beer Traveler, Ghent is a conveniently located to visit the great Breweries of Flanders!

Tonight we'll meet at The famous Waterhuis for a Welcome to Ghent beer, later to pod-off in small groups for independent dining. Hint – Ghent is world famous for All-you can Eat Spare-ribs!

After checking-in to our hotels you are free to independently explore Bamberg and it's 11 Brewpubs with the GBBT Great Bamberg Ultimate Brewpub Crawl. An optional dinner will be planned for this evening.

Roger Protz writes: "If you are searching for Beer Paradise, there's no need to wait until you fall off your bar stool – just head for Bamberg. This city of 70,000 people in Franconia, upper Bavaria, has 11 breweries and a vast collection of inns and taverns in which to enjoy their brews.

The beers include fascinating examples of Rauch or "smoke beer" made from malt roasted over beech wood fires. The method was once widespread in Europe and the British Isles until wood was replaced by coke in the 19th century. A visit to Bamberg enables you not only to drink amazing beers in superb inns but also to see at first-hand how beer was made centuries ago.

At the same time you can drink in some astonishing history, culture and architecture. Bamberg is a UNESCO World Heritage site and as you wander the narrow, winding streets you find at every turn stunning examples of medieval half-timbered buildings with Baroque and Renaissance styles for good measure."

The cathedral and Prince-Bishops' palace were built in the 13th century from local sandstone: the cellars and caverns left behind from the excavations were used to store perishables, including beer. The Benedictine monastery of St Michael looms above the city. It once had its own monastic brewery, which is now a brewing museum.
